

Camelia Ann Lee Kellar, age 61, died Tuesday, October 10, 2000 at her home in Little Rock. She was the daughter of the late Lucille and Robert Lee. She was born in Russellville, Arkansas and moved to Little Rock as a child and remained a Little Rock resident until her death. She was employed by Chenal Valley Gifts after an early retirement from Safeway Stores and Harvest Foods.

She was a devoted wife, mother, daughter, sister and friend to all who knew and loved her. She was a devout Christian and a member of the Summit Church. Prior to joining The Summit, she was a charter member of Trinity Assembly of God Church.

Survivors include her husband of forty-one years, Ronald E. Kellar; daughter, Suzanne Kellar Strickland and her husband, Alan Strickland; grandchildren, Nathaniel and Christina Gordon; stepgrandchildren, Hillary and Ryan Strickland; sister, Myra Nelle Lee Adams and her husband, J. C.; two nephews, Scott and Robert Adams and a host of beloved in laws, friends and coworkers.

Special thanks to all her friends at The Summit Church, Trinity Assembly of God, neighbors and friends who were so diligent to show her and her family gracious love and friendship during her five month battle with pancreatic cancer.

The funeral service will be at 2:00 p.m., Friday, October 13th at the Summit Church with Dr. Bill Elliff and Rev. Tony Jones officiating. Interment will be in Forest Hills Memorial Park.

The family will receive friends at Roller-Chenal Funeral Home (224-8300) from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m., Thursday.

Memorials may be made to the Missions Fund at The Summit Church, 6600 Crystal Hill Road, North Little Rock, AR 72118 or Grace Church, 12900 Cantrell Road, Little Rock, Arkansas 72212.
