

KENNETH GENE JOLLY, 27, formerly of Little Rock, who drowned Friday night, January 28, 1966 on a fishing trip near Shreveport, funeral service was today at 2 p.m. in the Ruebel Funeral Home Chapel by Chaplain Figurd J. Nelson. Burial was in National Cemetery with full military honors by the Little Rock Air Force Base personnel. He attended Little Rock public schools and had worked for funeral homes in Little Rock and in Mountain Home before enlisting in the Air Force. Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Aline McGraw Jolly of Bossier City; two sons, Wesley Cleveland Jolly and Robert Lester Jolly of Bossier City; a daughter, Elizabeth Deliese Jolly of Bossier City; his father, Rev. Loy Jolly of Ward; his mother, Mrs. Fayrene B. Jolly of Memphis; a brother, John Arthur Jolly of Memphis; and a sister, Mrs. Sarah J. Spencer of North Little Rock.