

Sandra Evans James

Sandy James, former resident of Little Rock, died on July 10, 2008 at her home in Studio City, CA. She was 68 years old.

Sandy graduated from Arkansas State University in 1973 and obtained her Masters Degree in 1993 from Henderson State University. In addition to her counseling position at several schools in Little Rock, she taught at Corning High School, Corning, AR and was a counselor to middle-school children at several schools in the Little Rock area, the Claire Lillienthal School in San Francisco, CA and most recently at the Luther Burbank Elementary in Santa Rosa, CA.

She is survived by her four children, Jamie Zissis of Incline Village, NV, Angela James of Santa Ana, CA, Brett James of Dallas, TX and Julie Cutforth of Studio City, CA and four grandchildren, Nicholas Zissis, (15), Alexander Zissis (11), and twins, Natalie and Ella Cutforth (3).

A private memorial service was held a Beverly Hills Presbyterian on July 19, 2008. A notice detailing the public memorial to be held in Dallas, TX in September will follow. In lieu of flowers, it was her wish to have donations made to St. Jude's Children's Hospital.
